I would report about 6.40 this P.M. a difficulty took place, corner of Julia and Baronne Sts, between two negroes named Robt Johnson alias "Rab," aged 21 years, laborer by occupation, residing cor Jackson and Chippewa Sts, and Saml Gross, 20 years of age, laborer by occupation residing No 831 Julia St.

DETAILED REPORT.

Robert Johnson alias "Rab" and two other negroes were standing at the corner of Baronne and Julia Sts, when Gross's sister Rosalie Jones, residing at 831 Julia St was coming from a near by grocery. She was insulted by Johnson. Going home she told her brother Saml. He went to the above corner, approached Johnson asked him why he insulted his sister. Johnson cursed and abused Gross, jumped backwards and made a motion like if to draw a weapon. Gross pulled his Revolver a 38 Calibre American Bull Dog and fired one shot which took effect in Johnsons left side two inches below the nipple, from which he died while being taken to the Hospital in the Ambulance which had been summoned. The Ambulance driven by Ike Reed conveyed the body to the Morgue. Gross escaped by running down Baronne St, turned into Girod followed by a number of citizens. He threw the revolver away while being pursued & was finally captured by Ed Stewart. Gus Leinaar. DETAILED REPORT.

I would report about 10 45 this P. M., John Edwards, alias "Coxey", and John Schwartz, while under the influence of liquor, were standing on the sidewalk in front of Herdendorf's Cafe, on Liberty bet. Bienville and Customhouse sts. Both men had pistols in their hands. Just then the electric light went out in the cafe, and Pat. Windstein who is detailed there came to the street door, when Edwards remarked: "The electric light is out, and I'll put some policeman's light out. Both Edwards and Schwartz got into a jumper, and Edwards fired one shot in the air. Pat. Windstein made a call rap, and Pat. Kilroy and Pollock who were coming from Customhouse and Franklin sts. and who heard the call rap and the shot, and when they reached Liberty and Customhouse - sts. Windstein hollored stop that wagon, which was being driven at a fast gait. Kilroy said stop, and Edwards fired deliberately at Kilroy, the bullet striking him over the heart, but glanced off, inflicting only a slight wound. Kilroy hollored to Pollock: "Bob I'm shot." Pollock then fired two shots, and Edwards then fired at Windstein. Then Kilroy, Pollock and Windstein returned the fire. The ambulance was summoned and officer Kilroy's wound was attended to.

Edwards was dead, and his body was taken to the morgue in the 1st Precinct Patrol wagon, Capt. Wahl, in charge, and Charles Funk, drivers. Edwards was shot in the throat, (adam's apple), once in the right side of the neck, once in the left breast near the shoulder, once in left side below arm-pit, and a scalp wound on left side of head.

The weapon used by Edwards is a 38-calibre, Iver Johnson Arms & Cycle Works, three chambers empty.

Schwartz's weapon is a 38-calibre, Forehand Arms Co. Worcester, Mass., two chambers empty.

Chief of Police, John Journée, came to the scene of the shooting, ordered a cab sent Kilroy to the station, and also gave instructions to afterwards send him home.

I was half a square from the scene of the shooting, heard the report of the shots, hurried there and took charge of the case. Schwartz made his escape, but afterwards surrendered to his father, Doorman Schwartz of the 7th Precinct. Subsequently he was booked at this station, charged with Shooting with intent to kill.

DETAILED REPORT.

Respectfully report that about 8.20 this P.M. an Italian named Vincent Grimaldo, a native of Palermo, Italy, aged 34 years, laborer by occupation and residing at #625 St Phillip St between Royal and Chartres sts, was shot in the left side of neck and instantly killed by one Joseph Gervasi, another Italian residing in the same house. The Murder took place in the house in which the men reside and which is an Italian tenement house. On the Police being notified of the murder, Sergt Paul Comian repaired to the scene and the dead man was found lying in the yard on the stone pavement, immediately in front of the door of Gervasi's room, with a Stiletto grasped in his right hand. There were no eye-witnesses to the Murder. Grimaldo's wife Mrs Lorenzo Grimaldo, says she was awakened by hearing three shots fired and on going into the yard, found her husband lying dead and saw Joseph Gervasi making his escape, also says that the men had been drinking together shortly before the Murder, but she knew of no trouble between them nor did she hear any quarreling. The body was conveyed to the Morgue in the 5th Precinct Patrol Wagon in charge of Patrolman Louis Bohm. and Coroner notified. Gervasi's description has been telegraphed to All Stations. The Stiletto found in the dead mans hand, also brought to this Station and is held as evidence. The dead man is the same Vincent Grimaldo that was arrested with one Joseph Grifasi at 12.30 am March 30th 1899, by the late Patrolman John Perry and Capt Patton Scott Pete and locked up in this Station, charged with Breaking into in the night time, Joseph Tesson's Dry Goods Store No 810 Royal St and also violating Section 3880 of Revised Statutes, relative to being armed with Burglars Tools. and when the case reached the Criminal Court, the charge was changed to Tresspass and on said charge they were convicted and sentenced to serve a term of Eight Months in the Parish Prison and which they served.

I went & respectfully report. about 11.15 PM Wm Randell, a Negro aged about 38 years shot & killed Katherine Pass, otherwise known as Katie Randell, who lived with him as wife at # 942 Toulouse St. She is apparently about 48 years of age. The weapon used, a Smith & Wesson 38 calibre, was found on the floor with three empty, and two loaded Cartridges.
After the shooting of the woman, Randell went outside on the Banquette, spoke to, and bid good bye to Jos Martin, residing 839 Toulouse St & Melton Dudley # 615 Burgundy St, who

DETAILED REPORT.

were standing on the opposite corner, and they all entered the house, and shot himself through the head, the ball entering below the left eye & Dr. Delaney of # 613 Burgundy St, was the first to hear the shooting, and state, that he heard three shots fired, and hastened to give the alarm, and on his return to the scene, saw Randell re enter the house, and heard two more shots, both bodies were cold in death, lying side by side across the bed, with feet towards Burgundy St, the woman was partly undressed, and the man with coat off, he evidently fired the fatal shot near the head which he fell over. The pistol and razor, was found by me lying on the floor near his feet.
The room was in great disorder, clothes thrown promiscuously around the room, remnants of boiled ham, and beer bottles, were on a table near the bed. The neighbors claim that both parties were fighting all morning, and frequently threatened the life. The couple have been living at this place about three months, the man is said to employed at St Gabriel La with a Priest, from where he returned a few days ago, and said to have a mother living in Manchester England, from whom he received money.
Coroner Leonard visited the house, viewed the bodies, and caused them to be removed to the morgue, the woman by the 1st Precinct Patrol wagon, and the man in 5th Precinct wagon. The pistol and razor were turned over to the coroner by me. Upon examination of the corpses it is evident that they exchanged shots, the woman first shooting the man over the heart, and before she fell, powder burnt, only on back of wrist of her left hand. The cause of the act is ascribed to the jealousy of the man. Name John Bannon who lives upstairs in the same house, claims that Randell came up stairs to his room, and assaulted him with a pistol, he had his arm up, the ball struck him on back of head, Randell then went to the window, fired, and reloaded his weapon and then fell down stairs, and out of the yard and was taken to the 4th Precinct Station. A pistol box containing a number of loaded cartridges were found in the room occupied by Bannon, and sent to Coroners office.

Capt. Richard J. Walsh. Comdg.

I moved report at 11.20 this p.m. Patmn Jas. H. Vigers and Patk J. Quinn were at the corner of Poydras and Franklin Sts, when they heard the cry of Watch! Murder!! coming from Lafayette St. Hastening in that direction they met a colored woman on Franklin & bet. Poydras and Lafayette named Henrietta Britten, who informed them, her husband, Henry Simbles, c, had just been murdered in their room in premises No 629 S. Franklin St by Stephen Smith, c. They entered the house and found Simbles, lying on the floor of Hendrix room, with a large wound in the left side of the abdomen, stabbed to death. By my order the body was removed to the Morgue in 1st precct. Patrol Wagon, Transportation &c. Patmn Richd J. Coleman in charge. Smith made his escape. I have telegraphed all Stations to arrest him. Jealousy about Henrietta Britten caused a fight between the two men resulting in the Murder. The knife, a large bladed dirk, with which the killing was done, was found in the front yard, besmeared with blood was brought to this Station, as was also Henrietta's bloody apron on which Smith appears to have wiped his hands after committing the deed. DETAILED REPORT.

Capt Richard J Walsh Commdg—

I moved report about 4.30 o'clock this Pm. while the body of Salvador Luciano was exposed at his brothers residence No 1125 Poydras St- Antonio Luciano, Miguel Solli, Frank Genovese, Luigi Luciano, Paola Mazzaroza, Nicola Tessitore and Vincent Caffidi were in attendance, mourning the death of their friend and relative, when Bartolo Ferrari residing cor Julia and Dryades Sts, entered the room, viewed Salvador Lucianos body-kissed his face, & then laughing sneeringly, crossed the room & shook the hand of Antonio Luciano, the dead mans brother. Antonio invited Ferrari, outside to tell him something, & got him as far as the Cigar-factory, a two room structure in rear of premises, asking him why he came to the house and laughed over his brothers body, after killing him last night? Without waiting for Ferrari to reply- Antonio entered the Factory, secured a shot gun and deliberately opened fire - firing twice in rapid succession, reloaded & fired another shot, taking effect- two wounds below, and one above the knee of the leg- one wound in left groin, one wound in left chest just below the heart- one bullet in the head, through the nose- After discharging the gun twice he hit Ferrari on the left side of the forehead with the butt of the gun, crushing his skull- Patrol B. Commander- Jos. Gorman & C Beerley, whom I detailed there to preserve the peace, heard the shooting & at once ran to the rear, they met Antonio Luciano, who cried out, "Now I am satisfied, I have killed a man, that killed my brother Salvador, last night". He was placed under arrest just as I entered- & locked up at this Station charged with Murder- I went to the rear yard

Commanding Precinct.

DETAILED REPORT.

yard found Bartolo Ferari lying there, gasping, sent for the Ambulance, he died ere it arrived - ordered the body taken to the Morgue, in 1st pct Patrol Wagon, Patrol Jno B. Yates in charge, Driver Jas I Brown. Patrol C. Sperlow picked up the Double barrel shot gun in the yard where it was thrown by Luciano. Examining it, I found both barrels had been recently discharged & contained two empty shells - another empty shell found in the yard was handed me - When Luciano was being taken through the alley by the arresting Officer, he threw away a loaded shell, which was picked up by Patrol J.N. Gorman & handed to me - I caused the body of Salvador placed in the hearse & ordered the funeral cortege to proceed - closed the premises and left two Patrolmen in charge - Interrogating Patrol Luciano in my Office, Clerk Rojas acting as interpreter he made the following statement= I am satisfied. I killed Bartolo Ferrari, he is the man that killed my brother Salvador last night, and I am contented that I have avenged the death of my brother." He says there are two other men implicated in the last nights killing, who were not yet arrested - He refused to give their names when requested, saying he did not know, but if I saw either of them on the street, he would point them out to the Police. That they are vagabonds & work in Banana ships. He claims that both he & his murdered brother Salvador befriended Ferrari by loaning him money with which to live, his books will show the amount to be $280.00 Ferrari came to his house this evening & placed his face against that of his dead brother - He induced him, he says, into the yard, the Cigar factory, & killed him, because he is the man that stabbed his brother to death last night. Being that Ferrari was dead, he kissed my hand, saying "that now he had avenged his brothers death - they could hang him."

DETAILED REPORT.

Sergt Wm G. E. Seelhorst reports that between 6 & 6.15 this PM. Joe Harris (C) a laborer by occupation residing on Fern near Spruce sts - was instantly killed by Jack McAllister (C) also a laborer by occupation residing on Short & Washington sts. on the bridge on Carrollton ave & Washington ave. Weapon used by McAllister, double barrell shot gun, breach loader No. 22617 P. Webley & Sons makers - one load fired striking Harris near heart & [illegible] head, Joe Harris having fired first shot from a 38 Caliber revolver Smith & Wesson makers - No. 186533 at McAllister doing no damage. Harris had been going around armed during the day telling several persons that he would kill McAllister as soon as he left the Cypress Company's Mill on New Basin and Carrollton ave. The said Harris had severely beaten his wife last night, a sister of McAllister, and had also threatened her life - she had made affidavit against him this morning before Judge Gill of 1st City Criminal Court by advise of her brother McAllister. This caused Harris to make threats against him. Mr. F. Kleinsmith, foreman of the mill had advised McAllister to get something to protect himself & McAllister secured the gun of the shot gun from Jos Leeland a dairy man residing on New Basin Shell Road. near the plant of Cypress Lumber Co - McAllister surrendered to Mr. F. Kleinsmith and Geo Ringgasser, who turned him over to me on Carrollton ave near Grelot st. The dead body of Joe Harris taken to the Morgue in 9th Dist Patrol Wagon driven by Geo Eberhardt in charge of Patrolman James Fudger. McAllister was taken to the 9th Dist Police Station - proper charges prefered - weapons held as evidence. While the Patrol wagon going at a swift pace to the scene with myself Patrolman James Fudge & Det McCall in the wagon & Geo Eberhardt driving, the Patrol sounding his gong, a milk wagon owned by Aug. Paquet backed into the Patrol wagon on Carrollton Ave near Hickory, breaking the milk wagons right side spring - No damage to Patrol wagon.

Driscoll & Corpl A. J. Fitzgerald, I went to the designated place in a car and there found Thos Mayer and several other white men, who informed us that a negro residing at No 2316 Poydras St had killed a white man - Entering the yard of No 2316 Poydras St, we found the body of a white man named Ford Tarleton lying there. Entering the house which is about 30 feet distant from the sidewalk, found Sergeant Jas P. Ward of the 10th Prect, on the gallery on guard. The occupant a negro named Jos Lambert, was standing in the front room holding a loaded musket, which he placed in a corner on our appearing. We placed him under arrest & conveyed him to this Station in the Patrol Wagon as also his musket & double barrel shot gun both loaded and held as evidence. We hurried him to the Station as a very large crowd had gathered & threaten him with bodily harm. He was shot in the left thigh & identified Thos Mayer as the man who shot him. His wound was dressed and pronounced slight, by the Ambulance students who had been summoned to this Station to attend him. Mayer was locked up charged with Shooting & Wounding Investigating, we learned that Tarleton entered, crossed the yard & walked as far as Lambert's front gallery - Lambert closed his front door - Tarleton turned & was retracing his steps when Lambert fired his musket through a window at Tarleton, who was then near the gate, the entire load of buck shot - fifteen in number - taking effect in his back, one of the bullets passing through & coming out on the right side of his body. He died before the Ambulance, which had been
