DETAILED REPORT.

Jany 26th 1903.

Capt F. W. Calongne reports about 11 o'clock ~~this~~ a m. A difficulty arose betwen Lorenzo Feorenza aged 25 years, residing #1133 Decatur between Hospital and Ursuline sts, a native of Italy, and Carmeno Gentille aged 85 years, residing at the corner St Claude and Kerlerac Streets, also a native of Italy, resulting in the latter firing a shot from a double barrel shot gun muzzle loader which took effet in the left side of the body, under the arm pit, where six buck shot penetrated. The Ambulance was summoned and the wounded man taken to the Hospital. Gentille was arrested by Patn George Cassien Robert Bofill, and myself and locked up at this station, charged with shooting and wounding with intent to murder. The cause of the trouble was that Gentille about two years ago, found a diamond ring, which belonged to his Wife and sometime ago sold it to Feorenzo, who keeps a shoe shop at # 1307 Kelerac Street, in the front room of the same house occupied by Gentille, for 60 cents, it appears that the family spoke of the ring within the hearing of the old man, this infuriated him. He went to the shoe makers shop and quarreled with him for having broken his promise and told his wife Mrs Gentille, and, he demanded the ring, offering the 60 cents in return. Feorenza refused to return the ring, whereupon, the old man went to his room, secured the gun and returned to the shoe-shop where the shooting occured, wounds pronounced serious. Feorenza Died at the Charity Hospital this P. M. At 4.45 o'clock. Jany 27th, 1903.

Affidavit will be made against Carmeno Gentille for Murder. Coroner Notified.

In company with Officer Jno Schultz, I visited the Hospital and found Hellman very much under the influence of liquor and violent - After much persuasion, he gave his name and address, but would make no statement. Welsch made a statement, that he was in Gorbals Oyster saloon with Hellman and the latter left him, after looking for him in the yard went on the street, and saw Hellman on Royal near Customhouse St in the street, scuffling with a man, He ran down the street and saw that it was Fred Wilson and that his friend was getting worsted, He approached and hit Wilson a belt, which staggered him, but Wilson at once drew a pistol and fired a shot which got him, He ran to the Mecca Oyster Saloon, where a Policeman took him and he was sent to the Hospital, his wound is serious. Welsch stated that there were two other parties with them but he does not know them by name. Wilson claimed that two shots were fired at him, but this is not verified by any witness. DETAILED REPORT.

Sergt: William Clifton reports that about 8:55 p.m. March 20th 1903, John Ferrier, aged 24 years, residing to. 617 Charters st: was shot twice in the back and once in the abdomen, on City Park avenue, between Alexander and Dumaine sts. by George Bollero, a book keeper residing to. 111 Elk Place. The wounded man was taken by citizens to Irenee Dours restaurant, near by, and an ambulance was summoned and he was taken in it to the hospital where his wounds were pronounced dangerous. Archie Charbonnet, a special officer, who is employed near the scene, and Paul Fourchy, a lawyer, who was in Dours' restaurant at the time, heard six shots fired in rapid succession and running to the place saw Bollero with the pistol in his hand. Bollero appeared to be acquainted with Fourchy and turned the revolver over to him saying in French, "I have given him all that was in it". Fourchy turned the pistol over to the sergeant. The weapon is a 32 calibre Smith & Wesson six shot double action revolver, to. 4957, having six empty shells in the chamber. It was held as evidence. Bollero was fully identified by Ferrier as the man who shot him.

From what could be learned from Henry Poncet, one of the witnesses, the trouble between the men was brought about, about 2 p.m. on the date of the shooting, by Ferrier presenting Bollero with a bill for $9 for wine purchased by him from Theodule Beaufort, where Ferrier is employed. Bollero became angry and grossly insulted Ferrier. It was then agreed that they go to some retired place and have a fist fight with the result that Ferrier was shot. Ferrier lingered in the hospital until 3:45 this p.m. when he died from his wounds.

The sergeant and Special officer A. Charbonnet arrested Bollero immediately after the shooting and locked him up. An affidavit will be now made against him for murder.

DETAILED REPORT.

I respectfully report that at about 1.45 o'clock this Ans. "July 14th 1903" a difficulty took place between three men, two of whom are known as Charles Randazzo, residing 818 Liberty street, ~~Nicola~~ Antonio Nicola, residing on board schooner Peter Crude, West End. and the other known as Dago Louis, full name could not be learned. and a Soldier named Garfield Bowers, a member of the 91st Co. 1st artillery stationed at the U.S. Barracks, which resulted in a man about 35 years of age supposed to be R. E. Reid being shot, once in the left breast and once in the Noble with revolver and instantly killed by the one known as Dago Louis, who succeeded in making his escape. The cause of the murder, from the statements given by Witnesses is that the three men, Charles Randazzo, Antonio Nicola and Dago Louis were in Company of a woman named Ora Price, residing at # 225 Marais street, and on passing at the corner of North Rampart and Canal streets the Soldier, Garfield Bowers was standing at the above corner, waiting for his car, the woman said to him on passing "Hello", he answered "Hello Honey" at this, one of the men, Charles Randazzo took offence and asked Bowers, did she look like a honey, Bowers answered that, of course she did, and Randazzo struck at Bowers. Bowers retaliated, and Dago Louis pulled out his revolver and fired three shots at Bowers, missing him. R. E. Reid, the young man who was murdered, was just coming out of the Barroom at the above Corner, and two of the shots took effect with above result. Reid was in no way connected with the affray.

The ambulance was summoned by Officer Bettenwolf, but on its arrival, the man was dead, the body was taken to the morgue in the 5th Precinct Patrol wagon, driven by driver Brown and Patrolman Shea, in charge of wagon.

After the shooting the three men ran into the Jockey Club Saloon, Kept by J. Thom, at # 106 N. Rampart street. Randazzo and Nicola remaining there, and Dago Louis going through the place and running through an alley, leading out Canal street, making his escape. He has not been apprehended as yet, his description has been sent to all stations.

Careful inquiries were made to see if any one could identify the dead man, but no one seemed to know him. on the inside of his hat was written "R. M. Reid", so the supposition is that it is his name.

Randazzo and Nicola were arrested by Officer Bitterwolf and myself and charged with murder, and the woman, Ora Price held as a material Witness. Both of the men claim that they do not know the name of the man who done the shooting; Though Randazzo claim to know him for several months. The woman says she never knew him, having met him only a short time before the shooting. This morning about 9 o'clk a revolver 38 calibre Forehand model of 1891 No 405558 was found wrapped in a blue border silk handkerchief which was burnt in the center evidently caused by firing through same with three chambers Empty & two loaded in rear of alleyway leading in yard of Thoms Saloon where the murderer escaped by Jane Parker colored residing No. 2428 Dauphine st & held as evidence Lyons, who asked him if Mr. Curley was in his office, replying in the affirmative Dr. Buck then went to his office which is on the third floor immediately below Mr. Curley's office. He had just reached his office when he suddenly heard two or three shots fired, running upstairs to Mr. Curley's office he saw Mr. Curley open the door and coming from the inner office saying "O my God," and then fall into Mr. Terriberry's arms. Dr. D. C. Orion whose office is directly opposite Mr. Curley's, states that he heard three shots fired, he then ran through Mr. Curley's outer office, when he saw Mr. Lyons shove Mr. Curley out into the outer office, he heard Mr. Curley say "You dare murdering me." DETAILED REPORT.

Lewis W. Lyons is 46 years of age, a married man, has a wife and five children and has been separated from his wife for some time. In July 1895 Lyons was arrested by Detectives De Rance & Skerven for the complaint of Dan Carroll for the larceny of a deamond, did was subsequently tried and exonerated by the court. Lyons then entered suit in the Civil District Court, through his attorneys Conley & Mellen, against detectives De Rance & Skerven for $5000 damages, losing this suit in Judge Ellis' division his attorneys then took an appeal to the Supreme Court where the case was again decided against him. It is then that Lyons conceived the idea that his attorneys and judges of the court were against him, and this idea has preyed on his mind since and is attributed to be the direct cause of this homicide.

The following members of the force rendered valuable assistance in investigating this affray.

Supt. Jno. Journée, Chief of Detectives O'Keefe, Detectives Dale, Roche, Gibbs, Littleton, De Rance & Schulz, Dantonio, Sergeant Tim Driscoll, Corporals Morgan, Fitzgerald & Wheatley and Patrolmen Duffour, Geizer, Jacobs, Buckley, Sandrell, Yates, Gorman and Behrman.

Detailed Report

Capt Jno. B. Cooper reports at about 3 30 this p.m. a difficulty occurred between John Reilly Jr. aged 15 years residing at No. 2714 Rousseau near Washington Ave. and one Susan Hyde, colored, aged 50 years. residing No. 2712 Rousseau St. resulting in John Reilly shooting Susan Hyde, on Sidewalk in front of her residence, causing instant death, John [redacted] was cut on left forehead, and right cheek bone, and was removed to the Hospital in the

DETAILED REPORT.

Ambulance for treatment, Susan Hyde's body was removed to the morgue in the 6th precinct Patrol Wagon in charge of Patn. Wm. Wallace. There appears to be no witnesses to the affair, with the usual reticence of the class of people residing in the neighborhood nothing could be learned except from hear-say - to the effect, that young Reilly was engaged in trouble with a colored boy - When the deceased came up, and struck Reilly on the head with a bottle wounding him on the forehead, he ran into the house, secured a revolver, and fired three shots, which were heard and seen by the only witness, as she turned into Rousseau St., from Washington Ave., Martha Hyde, daughter of deceased, who heard three shots fired, and seen Reilly standing at his door, shooting at her mother, who was in front of her door, saw her fall, no one else was around. At the Morgue it was found that two shots had taken effect, one in muscle of right arm and one in right shoulder, ranging downwards, which evidently caused death. Reilly's wounds which were not serious were attended to, and he was left at Hospital in charge of Patn. James Riley. An old case knife, and a piece of broken bottle was picked up by Corpl Melchum, brought to Headquarters and used as evidence, Reilly stated to Corpl. Melchum, that he threw the pistol in the Water-Closet, in his yard, but it could not be found proper affidavit will be made in the morning.
