ON MORNING OF CRIME Mrs Kane returned home to 534 Lombard after spending night at the police station. (where Mr Kane had sent her) There and a couple of men were drinking. Accused went to kitchen to fix food. She found evidence of another woman in the house. A quarrel erupted with the victim calling Mrs Kane "Vile" name and striking her voluntarily under eye and knocking her back. She charged him, with a butcher knife she had been using to cut some meat with, stabbing him in groin, severing su artery. Death was almost immediate.

Victim & Accused were best of friends. They had arranged a non-violent boxing match among themselves. On night of match, after putting on their boxing gloves, Defendant struck victim in ribs and cheek, causing victim to fall striking his head violently on ground. Defendant upon seeing victim down revived him with water, and then the 2 men joked about it and left the victim's workshop where the match was held. During night victim became unconscious & was taken to Hospital next morning where he died. Judge ordered voluntary manslaughter charge dropped. Left jury to decide if fight was "Prize Fight" or friendly athletic contest. Prize fights were illegal & would constitute MVL manslaughter. - Acquitted

Prosecution alleged that Accused caused death of victim by forcing mashed potatoes down its throat. Accused admitted leaving the dead body of her child in alley ~~near of the~~ ~~Bennett St.~~ Between Morris & Becker St.

A child's body was found in alley behind 1825 Benmore St.

Autopsy showed cause of death was the mashed potatoes. DEFENSE

Then asked if it could be proved that the body found could be proven to be the Accused dead child. There was no proof and case was dropped because the Commonwealth had failed to prove the CORPUS DELICTI.

At a delegate election, the two men became involved in a quarrel which ended in a fight. Although no hard blows were struck, Hazlett died about three months later from erysipelas due to an abscess of the jaw. A verdict of not guilty was rendered since no positive connection between the ~~upper~~ injuries received in the fight and the victim's death could be made.

The two boys and another went into the woods where it was alleged that Henderson cut, strangled and drowned Lockyer.

Henderson claimed that Lockyer ran into Henderson's knife, was stabbed and died. Henderson, being scared, hid the body in the water. The actual cause of death was drowning.

Defense claimed that the boys were an imbecile.
